InfoBeaver is an application for collecting and presenting multimedia information. Multimedial documents are stored in NXD database with corresponding metadata. Metadata define database search criteria available through the web interface. InfoBeaver demo-version illustrates functionalities of this tool applied on the data about CESAR project and its participants.